Introduction

In 2013, the Department of Human Resources (DHR) implemented the first statewide survey assessing employee engagement to address the goal of developing workforce excellence using meaningful performance targets and measures. The State of Vermont Employee Engagement Survey has been conducted annually since and provides important information for DHR to stay current on the status of employee engagement in Vermont State Government. This survey process allows us to measure how employees feel about their daily work and about the State of Vermont as an employer. In addition, results can be compared to prior years to examine trends and establish goals for improved engagement.

The 2020 survey was distributed early in March of 2020. On March 13th Governor Scott declared state of emergency because of the COVID-19 pandemic. That survey was never analyzed because of extremely low response since many employees were deployed to address the pandemic and its impacts. In addition, many employees who were able to do so were ordered to work remotely from home.

The 2021 survey was distributed in an unprecedented environment. First, many employees had been working for over a year on a remote basis and at the time of the survey guidance as to return to work had not yet been issued. Second, for over a year, employees in many departments had been under unprecedented workload pressures because of the State's response to the pandemic and its impacts. Finally, the Legislature was discussing possible restructuring of the employee pension plan due to the increasing problem of unfunded liabilities. All these things had an impact on responses to the survey and will be noted in the discussion of results.

While there are several ways to define employee engagement; simply stated it is the degree to which an individual is committed to an organization and the extent to which he/she works to fulfill and advance a stated mission. The 2021 survey contained questions in the areas of:

- The relationship between job duties and the organization's mission/goals;
- Communication and input;
- Relationships and morale within the organization;
- The employee's relationship with supervisor;
- The impact of workload, staffing and resources; and
- Compensation and benefits.

In addition, for 2021 several special sections were added, including the opportunity for employees to rank factors related to employees' engagement and satisfaction that were either being successfully addressed in their Department or they felt needed improvement; there was a section on employee perception of diversity, equity, and inclusion issues; and there was a section to allow employees to compare whether certain key elements of employee engagement and satisfaction were better or worse compared to the previous year (pre pandemic).

Using the Report

The 2021 Engagement Survey provides a great deal of data from which stakeholders can glean information to improve organizational practices.

The analysis provided in this report is designed to be used by Agencies and Departments, as well as by DHR, as a guide to identify areas of success and improvement, and areas that may require additional investigation for next steps. It is meant to begin a process of discussion and dialogue that can result in improving staff relations, service to customers, organizational communication processes, and supervisory practices. The primary audiences for this report are all DHR stakeholders: DHR Divisions whose purpose is to provide leadership in employee hiring, retention and development; and Agency and Department leadership and managers, who can work with DHR to determine how best to use this information.

Methodology

Survey Instrument

The 2021 State of Vermont Employee Engagement Survey was designed to measure engagement across the Executive Branch of Vermont State Government.

The core survey structure remained the same as the 2019 survey. (After a review of the 2013 results in 2014 several new items were added, and others were revised for clarity). The 2021 survey contained questions in the areas of:

- Relationship of job duties to the mission and goals of the agency/department (6 items)
- Communication and input with the organization (4 items)
- Relationships and morale in the organization (9 items)
- Relationship with supervisor (12 items)
- Workload, staffing and resources (7 items)
- Compensation and benefits (6 items)

The items selected for this survey are standard employee satisfaction and/or engagement items and track substantially with the questions and categories studied in the far-reaching landmark Gallup employee engagement poll. The survey also assessed overall job satisfaction.

Survey items appeared as statements for which respondents were instructed to select from a five-point scale of agreement: Strongly Agree, Agree, Neither Agree nor Disagree, Disagree, and Strongly Disagree.

See Appendix A for a list of all survey items.

Survey Administration

The survey was administered electronically via Survey Monkey. An email invitation was sent to all Executive Branch classified and exempt employees<sup>1</sup> using their “preferred” email address as indicated in VTHR on March 29, 2021. The survey was active from March 29 through April 9, 2021.

The survey sample included all classified and exempt employees of the Executive Branch employed during the survey period, 7,985 employees.

Employee Engagement Survey Results - 2021

Of the 7,985 employees surveyed, 4,995 employees responded to the survey for an overall response rate of 62.1%. While this was a robust sample, since survey participation was voluntary it should be noted that this survey was based on a “convenience” sample of employees who chose to respond. Therefore, the reader should keep this in mind when interpreting results.

Data Analysis

The original survey instructed respondents to select from a five-point scale of agreement: Strongly Agree, Agree, Neither Agree nor Disagree, Disagree, and Strongly Disagree. For purposes of presentation in this report these were recoded to: Agree (combined Strongly Agree, Agree), Neutral (Neither Agree nor Disagree), and Disagree (Disagree, and Strongly Disagree).

Employee Engagement

An index of employee engagement was calculated – an “Employee Engagement Score.” This score is the average of six components of employee engagement. The model is presented in Table 31.<sup>2</sup> The following are the individual components or scales, questions making up that component or scale and the reliability of the scale as measured by Cronbach’s Alpha.<sup>3</sup>

Growth (Alpha=.883)

- Q26. My supervisor provides the help I need to improve my job performance.
- Q27. I have an opportunity to learn and grow professionally
- Q28. I receive the training I need to perform my job.
- Q29. My supervisor and I discuss and plan my career development.

Balance (Alpha=.802)

- Q33. The amount of work I am expected to perform is reasonable.
- Q34. My job allows a good balance between work and my personal life.

Supervisor (Alpha=.939)

- Q20. My supervisor clearly explains my job performance expectations.
- Q21. My supervisor regularly provides me with timely and useful feedback.
- Q22. My supervisor gives me an opportunity to do my best work.
- Q23. I am satisfied with the recognition I receive from my supervisor for my work.
- Q24. My supervisor treats employees fairly and respectfully.
- Q25. My supervisor seems to care about me as a person.

Communication (Alpha=.872)

- Q7. Management and senior leadership communicates important information effectively.
- Q8. I have an opportunity to provide feedback to management and senior leadership.
- Q9. I am encouraged to share ideas on improving either service delivery or business process efficiency.
- Q16. I feel I can communicate honestly and openly in my workplace.

<sup>3</sup> Cronbach’s Alpha is a statistical index of internal consistency. Alpha coefficients of .8 or higher indicate a scale has very good internal consistent or reliability.

Peers (Alpha=.878)

Q12. The people I work with treat each other respectfully.

Q13. The people I work with care about me.

Q14. My fellow employees are committed to doing good work.

Q15. The employees in my work group work well together as a team.

Alignment (Alpha=.845)

Q1. I understand my job duties and responsibilities.

Q2. I understand the work, goals, and mission of my department or agency.

Q3. The work I perform is linked to my department or agency meeting its goals and mission.

Satisfaction (Alpha=.876)

Q4. I enjoy performing the day to day work of my job.

Q5. The work I perform is meaningful and rewarding.

Q6. I would recommend the State of Vermont to others as a great place to work

Q41. I feel that working for the State of Vermont provides me with a solid career path.

Q45. In general, I am satisfied with my job.

Response Rates

Table 1 shows response rate by department. With an overall response rate of 62.1%, department response rates varied considerably.

Characteristics of Survey Sample

To further understand the survey sample, the number of completed surveys and percent were compared with the percent in the employee population (data from the 2020 Workforce Report). These results are shown in Tables 2 to 6.

Most demographic results showed a relatively close match between survey representation and the employee population.

Employee Engagement Survey Items: Summary of Key Findings

Job Duties and their Relationship to the Mission and Goals of Your Agency or Department

Table 7 displays percent agreement for all respondents to survey statements for “Job Duties and their Relationship to the Mission and Goals of your Agency or Department.” The table also shows the percent agreement for the same question in the 2019 survey and a percent change from 2019 to 2021 in agreement.

Table 7      Job Duties and their Relationship to the Mission and Goals of your Agency or Department – All Respondents

More than 90% of respondents agreed that they understand their job duties and responsibilities (90.8%). A high level of agreement was also seen when asked if they understood the work, goals, and mission of their department or agency (89.3%) and that the work they perform is linked to their department or agency meeting its goals and mission (88.0%). These all remain relatively unchanged from the 2019 survey results.

To a lesser extent, respondents agreed that they enjoy performing the day-to-day work of their job (74.2%) and that the work they perform is meaningful and rewarding (73.9%). Again, these remain relatively unchanged from the 2019 survey results.

The lowest agreement was found among all respondents when asked if they would recommend the State of Vermont to others as a great place to work (60.9%). This is a substantial drop (-10.7%) in agreement compared to that found in the 2019 survey (71.6%).

Table 8 displays percent agreement for respondents by department to survey statements for “Job Duties and their Relationship to the Mission and Goals of your Agency or Department.” A “heat map” of responses is used to visually represent levels of agreement that are below the average for that question. This is a visual tool to make cross department comparisons.

Communication and Input within your Organization

Table 9 displays percent agreement for all respondents to survey statements for “Communication and Input within your Organization.” The table also shows the percent agreement for the same question in the 2019 survey and a percent change from 2019 to 2021 in agreement.

Table 9      Communication and Input within your Organization – All Respondents

Nearly 60% (59.6%) of respondents agreed that management and senior leadership communicates important information in an effective manner. This is a modest increase (7.0%) over the 2019 survey response agreement.

More respondents felt they had an opportunity to communicate with and provide feedback to management and senior leadership (62.4%), were encouraged to share ideas on improving either service delivery or business process efficiency (59.8%), and that their department or agency works well with other departments and agencies (62.9%). These all remain relatively unchanged from the 2019 survey results.

Table 10 displays percent agreement for respondents by department to survey statements for “Communication and Input within your Organization.” A “heat map” of responses is used to visually represent levels of agreement that are below the average for that question. ## Relationships and Morale in your Organization

Table 11 displays percent agreement for all respondents to survey statements for “Relationships and Morale in your Organization.” The table also shows the percent agreement for the same question in the 2019 survey and a percent change from 2019 to 2021 in agreement.

Table 11 Relationships and Morale in your Organization – All Respondents

Less than half of respondents agreed that morale within their department or agency is good (44.2%); almost a third disagreed (32.1%).

Over 70% of all respondents agreed that the people they work with treat each other respectfully (75.7%) and to a slightly lesser extent that the people they work with care about them (69.8%). These both showed small increases over agreement found in the 2019 survey.

82.1% agreed that their fellow employees are committed to doing good and that employees in their work group work well together as a team. The latter showed a modest increase (7.0%) over the 2019 survey response agreement.

A little over 60% of respondents felt they can communicate honestly and openly in their workplace (62.1%), which had a relatively high percent disagreeing with the statement (18.0%).

More than three out of four of all respondents agreed that harassment is not tolerated in their workplace (79.0%) and discrimination is not tolerated in their workplace (80.5%). Fewer respondents agreed that they were confident that any misconduct that they report will be handled properly (63.3%), which had a relatively high percent disagreeing with the statement (15.0%). All these questions showed little change in agreement from the 2019 survey results.

Table 12 displays percent agreement for respondents by department to survey statements for “Relationships and Morale in your Organization.” A “heat map” of responses is used to visually represent levels of agreement that are below the average for that question. This is a visual tool to make cross department comparisons.

Your Supervisor

Table 13 displays percent agreement for all respondents to survey statements for “Your Supervisor.” The table also shows the percent agreement for the same question in the 2019 survey and a percent change from 2019 to 2021 in agreement.

Table 13 Your Supervisor – All Respondents

On average, approximately 70% agreed to the range of statements regarding their supervisor (Q20 – Q26), but with relatively high levels of “neutral” and “disagree” responses (on average 30%), which shows that these supervisory items have variability based on other factors, such as across departments. All these questions showed a slight but consistent increase over the 2019 survey results.

The lowest agreement among all respondents was when asked if their supervisor discussed and planned their career development with them (47.1%).

For all respondents, 72.1% agreed that their performance evaluations are completed annually. To a lesser extent, respondents agreed that the standards used to evaluate their performance were fair (66.1%), with a high level of “neutral” (24.5%), which shows respondents’ ambivalence about this statement. These showed little change in agreement from the results of the 2019 survey.

Table 14 displays percent agreement for respondents by department to survey statements for “Your Supervisor.” A “heat map” of responses is used to visually represent levels of agreement that are below the average for that question. This is a visual tool to make cross department comparisons.

Workload, Staffing and Resources

Table 15 displays percent agreement for all respondents to survey statements for “Workload, Staffing and Resources.” The table also shows the percent agreement for the same question in the 2019 survey and a percent change from 2019 to 2021 in agreement.

Table 15 Workload, Staffing and Resources – All Respondents

More respondents disagreed that their department or agency has the staffing and resources necessary to achieve its mission (48.0%) than agreed (33.0%). This was significantly greater disagreement than was found in the 2019 survey (-9.5%)

While 52.7% of all respondents agreed that the amount of work, they are expected to perform is reasonable, more than a quarter (26.2%) disagreed. A higher percentage agreed that their job and work environment allow for a good balance between work and their personal life (59.9%). Both of these are down slightly from 2019 survey results.

A majority of all respondents agreed that they have the resources to do their job well (60.0%) and that their department or agency had the technology needed to get the work done (60.0%). The percent agreeing that they had the technology needed to get the work done increased significantly (9.3%) compared to the 2019 survey results.

Over three out of four of all respondents agreed that their physical working environment is reasonable for their type of work (81.3%) and that they feel safe and secure in their work environment (83.4%). Both of these had a slight increase from the 2019 survey results.

Table 16 displays percent agreement for respondents by department to survey statements for “Workload, Staffing and Resources.” A “heat map” of responses is used to visually represent levels of agreement that are below the average for that question. This is a visual tool to make cross department comparisons.

Compensation and Benefits

Table 17 displays percent agreement for all respondents to survey statements for “Compensation and Benefits.” The table also shows the percent agreement for the same question in the 2019 survey and a percent change from 2019 to 2021 in agreement.

Table 17 Compensation and Benefits – All Respondents

60.0% of all respondents agreed that they felt that they were paid fairly for the work they perform, while 23.0% disagreed. This is a slight decrease from 2019 survey results.

Just over 70% of all respondents agreed that working for the State of Vermont provides them with good job security (71.9%), while to a lesser extent 57.8% agreed that that working for the State of Vermont provided them with a solid career path. Both of these are down significantly from the 2019 survey results (-11.1% and -11.6% respectively).

Nearly three out of four respondents agreed that they understand their benefits plan (73.4%%).

Less than half of respondents agreed they understood their retirement benefits (46.0%). This is down dramatically (-27.7%) from 2019 survey results.

Overall, 64.7% agreed that they were satisfied with the benefits they received. This is down significantly (-19.3) from 2019 survey results.

Diversity, Equity and Inclusion (DEI)

Table 21 displays percent agreement for all respondents to survey statements that were designed to assess perceptions of issues related to diversity and inclusion. The table also shows the percent agreement for five questions that were also in the 2019 survey and a percent change from 2019 to 2021 in agreement.

Over four out of five respondents agreed that their supervisor would take any report of sexual harassment very seriously (87.7%). This is a slight decrease from 2019 survey results.

To a lesser extent, respondents agreed that racial, sexual, and gender-based jokes or slurs are not tolerated in their Agency/Department (79.7%), that their supervisor values the diverse perspectives and ideas that come from staff members from different cultures, backgrounds and life experiences (76.8%) and that they believed that their Agency/ Department reflects a culture of respect, professionalism and civility (74.0%).

Levels of agreement have dropped since the 2019 survey when respondents were asked if their Agency/Department has an inclusive environment where staff diversity at all levels is valued and encouraged (-8.6%), and if the State has done a good job of providing training programs that promote an understanding of diversity, equity, and inclusion (-7.0%).

The lowest agreement among all respondents was when asked if management shows that diversity is important through its actions (56.9%).

Table 22 displays percent agreement for respondents by department to survey statements that were designed to assess perceptions of issues related to diversity and inclusion. A “heat map” of responses is used to visually represent levels of agreement that are below the average for that question. This is a visual tool to make cross department comparisons.

Engagement Survey Items – Summary and Trends

With the 2021 survey we now have six years of data from the base 2013 survey and five years from 2014 when several new items were added, and others were revised for clarity. The following Tables 23 to 29 show results for all respondents for the six survey question areas as well as overall satisfaction for 2014 to 2021, with analysis of patterns and changes. Discussion will focus on trends and what we can learn from the data. It should be noted that differences of only several percentage points are probably not meaningful and are likely due to sampling differences.

A “heat map” is used to visually represent both levels of agreement and change year-to-year.

Questions 1 - 3 have seen high agreement since the benchmark year and remained high with close to or over 90% agreement and with little variation. What this tells us is that employees feel they understand their job duties and department mission/goals.

For 2021 agreement dropped below the 75% threshold for questions 4 and 5 for the first time in several years. While still high the drop is likely the result of workload and other pressures due to the pandemic. Still a significant number of employees report they enjoy performing the day to day work of their jobs and find their work meaningful and rewarding.

The one item in this category that has shown significant variation is Q6. There was improvement from 2014 to 2019. From 66.2% to 71.6% (+8.1%). However, there was a drop of 3.6% from 2017 to 2019. And in 2021 there was a precipitous drop of nearly 15% to only 60.9% agreement that respondents would recommend the State of Vermont to others as a great place to work. This is very likely the result of discussions in the Legislature about pension reform, as well as workload and other pressures due to the pandemic.

These items relate to internal communication and have only seen modest change – only half or a bit more agree to these items – none exceed the 75% agreement threshold.

The notable question with positive change from 2014 to 2021 is Q7 - Management and senior leadership communicates important information effectively. From 49.3% to 59.6% (+20.9%). There was a 7% increase from the 2019 survey to the 2021 survey.

Fewer than half of respondents agreed that morale within their department or agency is good in the 2021 survey (44.2%). This item has been consistently among those items with the lowest percent agreement in the entire survey. This may have something to do with the ambiguity of the term morale and how people interpret that. So, while morale has very little agreement other items such as general job satisfaction are relatively high.

Over 80% agreed that their fellow employees are committed to doing good work (82.1%) and that employees in their work group work well together as a team (82.1%).

The labor relation/legal items have shown some improvement since baseline. Notably, Q19 - I am confident that any misconduct that I report will be handled properly went from 55.8% to 63.3% (+13.4%). Q17 and Q18 remain well above the 75% threshold.

Q23. I am satisfied with the recognition I receive from my supervisor for my work.	60.9%	61.9%	64.6%	66.0%	66.2%	67.5%	64.5%	1.9%
Q24. My supervisor treats employees fairly and respectfully.	70.5%	70.8%	74.2%	75.3%	75.5%	78.0%	74.1%	3.4%
Q25. My supervisor seems to care about me as a person.	73.9%	75.0%	77.2%	77.2%	77.5%	79.1%	76.6%	2.0%
Q26. My supervisor provides the help I need to improve my job performance.	62.9%	63.8%	67.1%	68.3%	68.5%	70.1%	66.8%	2.4%
Q27. I have an opportunity to learn and grow professionally.	63.1%	64.5%	66.8%	67.8%	67.5%	66.3%	66.0%	-1.8%
Q28. I receive the training I need to perform my job.	59.6%	61.6%	65.4%	66.3%	66.0%	66.9%	64.3%	1.4%
Q29. My supervisor and I discuss and plan my career development.	37.4%	41.0%	44.5%	46.3%	47.8%	47.1%	44.0%	-1.4%
Q30. My performance evaluations are completed annually.	56.8%	62.8%	64.6%	66.2%	71.4%	72.1%	65.6%	1.0%
Q31. The standards used to evaluate my performance are fair.	53.1%	57.7%	59.9%	60.4%	64.6%	66.1%	60.3%	2.3%

On average, approximately 70% agreed to the range of statements regarding their supervisor (Q20 – Q26). Interestingly this group of questions all showed pattern of slight increases from 2019 to 2021.

Of note is the increase in those reporting their evaluations completed annually to nearly 72.1% in 2021.

Q33. The amount of work I am expected to perform is reasonable.	49.3%	50.0%	54.2%	56.3%	55.5%	52.7%	53.0%	-5.1%
Q34. My job allows a good balance between work and my personal life.	56.9%	58.2%	61.7%	63.4%	63.1%	59.9%	60.5%	-5.0%
Q35. I have the resources to do my job well.	52.8%	54.7%	59.2%	59.6%	59.3%	61.2%	57.8%	3.1%
Q36. My Agency or Department has the technology needed to get the work done.	48.8%	52.6%	56.5%	55.5%	54.9%	60.0%	54.7%	9.3%
Q37. My physical working environment is reasonable for my type of work.	73.6%	76.8%	78.8%	78.1%	78.5%	81.3%	77.9%	3.6%
Q38. I feel safe and secure in my work environment.	76.7%	72.3%	77.6%	78.8%	78.8%	83.4%	77.9%	5.8%

In 2021 only one-third of respondents agreed that their department or agency has the staffing and resources necessary to achieve its mission. This was a drop of 9.5% from the 2019 survey to the 2021 survey and again is most likely attributable to the increased workload and demands of the pandemic and the State's response.

Similarly, just over half 52.7 of all respondents agreed that the amount of work they are expected to perform is reasonable, this is a decrease (5.1%) from 2019. A higher percentage agreed that their job and work environment allow for a good balance between work and their personal life (59.9%), this is a decrease of 5%.

In 2021 60% of all respondents agreed that they felt that they were paid fairly for the work they perform. The percent agreeing has increased since the baseline year.

- Q39. I am paid fairly for the work I do. From 55.9% to 60.0% (+7.3%).

The percent indicating that working for the State of Vermont provides them with good job security dropped below the 75% threshold for the first time since 2015. In addition, the percent agreeing that working for the State of Vermont provided them with a solid career path dropped below the 60% agreement level for the first time since 2016. Both are very likely related to the Legislature's discussions of pension reform which were taking place during the distribution of this survey.

The percent agreeing that they understood their benefit plans dropped below the 75% agreement level for the first time since 2014. In addition, less than half of respondents indicated that they understood their retirement benefits – the first time that this is dropped below the 60% level. This is a 27.7% decrease from the 2019 survey to the 2021 survey. Finally, the percent agreement with the statement “Overall I'm satisfied with the benefits I receive” also dropped below the 75% agreement level a 19.3% drop from 2019 to 2021. Again, all of these are very likely a reaction to concerns among employees about potential pension changes.

Engagement Survey Items by Demographic Questions

Survey items were cross tabulated with the five demographic questions asked in the survey. While results are too numerous to detail in this report, some noteworthy findings are summarized below. The reader can find the complete cross tabulations in Appendix C.

For the most part there are few meaningful differences

Job Type

Respondents were asked to identify if they were a classified or an exempt employee. Job type showed frequent and significant differences, with exempt employees expressing greater agreement to many questions. Some examples (percent agreement shown):

- Q5. The work I perform is meaningful and rewarding (exempt, 83.8%; classified, 75.1%).
- Q6. I would recommend the State of Vermont to others as a great place to work. (exempt, 83.8%; classified, 75.1%).
- Q7. Management and senior leadership communicates important information effectively (exempt, 77.3%; classified, 61.6%).
- Q8. I have an opportunity to provide feedback to management and senior leadership (exempt, 71.6%; classified, 62.3%).
- Q11. Morale in my department or agency is good (exempt, 59.3%; classified, 44.2%).
- Q13. The people I work with care about me (exempt, 82.2%; classified, 71.2%).
- Q16. I feel I can communicate honestly and openly in my workplace (exempt, 74.6%; classified, 63.2%).

Gender

There were some differences based on gender some examples are shown below.

- Q5. The work I perform is meaningful and rewarding (Female, 80.1%; Male, 69.9%).
- Q6. I would recommend the State of Vermont to others as a great place to work (Female, 69.5%; Male, 55.8%).
- Q39. I am paid fairly for the work I do. (Female, 65.9%; Male, 53.7%).
- Q45. In general, I am satisfied with my job. (Female, 78.9%; Male, 67.7%).

Generation

Generally, there were no meaningful differences among generational groups for any survey questions. This is surprising given the typical generational differences one might expect. The one exception that was detected was the following:

- Q45. In general, I am satisfied with my job. Baby boomers tended to have a slightly higher percentage agreement (81.3%) than Gen X (72.7%), Millennial (71.1%) or Gen Z (70.2%).

EEO-4 Ethnic Groups

Respondents were asked “Do you identify as any of the following groups: American Indian or Alaskan Native (Non-Hispanic or Latino), Asian (Non-Hispanic or Latino), Black or African American (Non-Hispanic or Latino), Hispanic or Latino, Native Hawaiian or Other Pacific Islander (Non-Hispanic or Latino), or Two or More Races (Non-Hispanic or Latino)?”

For the most part, we did not find many meaningful differences among respondents answering yes but the “N” (sample size) was quite small (173) so our ability to detect differences was difficult.

Some examples of where we did find important differences:

NOTE: Yes = Identify as EEO-4 ethnic group as listed above. No = Did not identify as EEO-4 ethnic group as listed above.

- Q16. I feel I can communicate honestly and openly in my workplace (Yes, 55.8%; No, 65.4%).
- Q17. Harassment is not tolerated in my workplace. (Yes, 70.3%; No, 81.7%).
- Q18. Discrimination is not tolerated in my workplace. (Yes, 68.8%; No, 82.9%).
- Q39. I am paid fairly for the work I do. (Yes, 49.7%; No, 62.2%).
- Q50. In my Agency/Department, employees interact well with others whose backgrounds, beliefs and experiences are different from their own. (Yes, 61.6%; No, 71.4%).

Management Level

Respondents were asked to identify if they were a manager/supervisor or not a manager or supervisor. Much like job type, there were frequent and significant differences, with managers/supervisors often expressing greater agreement to many questions. Some examples (percent agreement shown):

- Q8. I have an opportunity to provide feedback to management and senior leadership (manager/supervisor, 72.4%; not manager or supervisor, 60.7%).
- Q16. I feel I can communicate honestly and openly in my workplace (manager/supervisor, 71.9%; not manager or supervisor, 61.5%).
- Q33. The amount of work I am expected to perform is reasonable. (manager/supervisor, 44.7%; not manager or supervisor, 57.0%).
- Q46. My Agency/Department has an inclusive work environment where staff diversity at all levels is valued and encouraged. (manager/supervisor, 76.4%; not manager or supervisor, 66.7%).

Employee Engagement Results

Overall employee engagement scores were calculated.<sup>4</sup> The score is the average of the seven components of engagement as outlined in the model illustrated in Table 31, which shows the components and the questions that make up each component.<sup>5</sup>

For 2021 the average employee engagement score was 3.81 out of a possible 5.0.

See Table 30 to compare employee engagement scores over time. Scores increased 3.6% from 2014 to 2017. There was a slight drop from 2017 to 2021.

Table 32 – Components of Employee Engagement – 2021 Averages

Components of Employee Engagement - 2021 Averages

Table 32 shows the components of employee engagement. Alignment – understanding the link between one’s job and the organization’s mission - was the highest component score. Supervisor, Peers and Satisfaction all had high component scores. The lowest was Balance – the sense of work-life balance.

Table 33 shows scores for each of the seven components from 2014 to 2021. The three with the lowest average scores over that time period are Balance, Communication and Growth. These are areas where efforts to improve the component will increase overall engagement.

Table 34 shows 2021 scores for Employee Engagement and Components by Department. A “heat map” of responses is used to visually scores that are either equal to or greater than the median for that question or less than the median for that question. This is a visual tool to make cross department comparisons. The median was used to show the top 50%/bottom 50%.

Additional Resources

Highest average score of the 7 components

Supervisor

Scores increased 5.8% from 2014 to 2021
Average score is among the 4 highest of the 7 components

Peers

Scores increased 4.9% from 2014 to 2021
Average score is among the 4 highest of the 7 components

Balance

Scores increased 3.0% from 2014 to 2021
Lowest average score of the 7 components

Communication

Scores increased 4.5% from 2014 to 2021
 Average score is among the 3 lowest of the 7 components

Satisfaction

Scores are flat from 2014 to 2019. Score dropped -3.5% from 2019 to 2021.
 Average score is among the 4 highest of the 7 components

Engagement scores were cross tabulated with demographic variables. There were no meaningful differences for gender, generation, ethnicity, or management level. However, two had slight differences and are illustrated below and that is job type, either exempt or classified and amount of time the employee was currently working remotely.

Qualitative Analysis of Open-Ended Question Responses

Overview

In addition to the 45 employee engagement survey items, an optional open-ended question was provided to survey participants:

Please provide any comments you may have about ways to make the State of Vermont a better place to work.

Out of the 4,955 employees who responded to the survey, 2,048 provided a response to the open-ended question for a response rate of 41%.

A trained rater analyzed and coded each comment for major themes. Major themes were named based on what was interpreted to be the key idea or ideas expressed in the response (based on key words or phrases that were commonly used). In addition, the raters coded whether the comment theme expressed was clearly “a concern,” “positive,” or “neutral.”

A multiple response analysis was conducted since a single respondent’s comment could be coded for up to five themes.

The “N” is the number of respondents who selected that response option. The “Percent of Cases” is the percentage of the cases (i.e., survey respondents) accounted for by this category. This column's sum will be greater than 100%, but the individual percentages can be interpreted as the prevalence of that option among the survey sample.

Results

The 2,048 comments contained over 3,766 thematic ideas.

The two top themes reflect the timing of this survey. As has been mentioned before in this report at the time of the survey the legislature was considering changes to the state's pension system. In addition, guidance on return to work had not yet been issued.

Nearly 28% of all respondent comments contained expressions of concerns about reforms being proposed for the State of Vermont’s pension system. In addition, nearly 26% of all respondent comments contained positive comments related to remote work.

Detailed discussion of some of the top themes found in open ended questions

Pension Concerns

(27.8% of Respondents)

Themes Reflected in Comments

- Concerns about proposals to reform employee pension.
- Stated intention to leave SOV if certain pension reforms are enacted.
- Concerned that pension reforms will make it more difficult to recruit and retain.
- No longer recommending the State of Vermont as an employer.

Examples

While pension reform is critical, it needs to be handled in a manner that does not detract from the benefits of working for the State. Right now, the pension is one of the most critical components for attracting and retaining State employees.

Please support employees in retaining their retirement benefits. It is the primary benefit for most of us. Without a good retirement plan, Vermont as an employer is not as attractive. If I were five years younger, I'd be on the move to the private sector, where I could at least earn more and put away more into retirement savings.

I absolutely love my job and had no question that I planned to retire from the State of Vermont... until it became clear that the pension benefits promised to me when I was hired many years ago are not guaranteed and there is a good chance that I will have to pay more and work longer for less benefits. I have been headhunted over the years and always said no thank you, but now I am considering taking a job in the private sector that will pay more so I can invest my money myself instead of being at the mercy of the legislature until I retire. I am angry and sad about this whole situation.

The pension issue has cast a negative light on employment with the State. Morale is terribly low due to this.

In my profession (engineering), nobody decides to work for the State because of the salary. Instead it is the benefits both tangible (health insurance and pension) and intangible (agency mission and healthy work environment). The recent discussion regarding reducing the pension benefit is very disconcerting and will make the State a much less attractive place to work.

Policies – Remote work/Telework - Positive

(25.6% of Respondent)

Themes Reflected in Comments

- Desire to continue full-time or hybrid work schedule post pandemic

- Reasons cited may include work life balance, better work environment, fewer safety concerns, greater productivity, saving the state cost space, reduction of commuting barriers, allowing the state to remain more competitive in job market.

Examples

I really love my job, which a year ago was not the case. I really prefer working from home and hope that the State will give us an opportunity to continue. If anything positive has come out of COVID, it has proven that employees can continue work from remote locations.

I personally feel my productivity has increased since I have been working remotely. I believe if the State of Vermont allows employees the choice of remote working would increase moral and productivity of employees.

I hope the state of Vermont will consider keeping remote working as an option for employees as it provides a better work/ life balance, the working environment from home is beneficial, and I feel more productive and focused.

Please continue to support telework policies going forward, even if that is a combination of remote and in-person working. This has made many employees more productive and is highly beneficial to work/life balance.

I think it is very important that the State allow employees to work from home part time indefinitely. This is a huge benefit in terms of work life balance, and cuts significantly down on commuting miles as well. It is likely the fastest way we can cut our collective emissions as an agency and the easiest way to increase employee moral.

Hybrid future where we can work from home part of the week. I'm eager to have some office time but found work from home to be about 50% more productive.

Work Environment and General Employee Morale - Concerns (15.9% of Respondents)

Themes Reflected in Comments

- Desires for improvements in work atmosphere or organizational culture.
- Comments about "favoritism," and "cliques."
- Comments about "toxic" or hostile work environments.
- Lack of Recognition - lack of recognition from the state for going above and beyond during the COVID crisis.

Examples

I see favoritism within leadership and not all employee's are recognized for outstanding work that they have done in the past year.

We get the opportunity to fill these surveys out every year, but I rarely see any changes. If management has courses on how to be a manager, then there should be courses for staff on how to deal with toxic supervisors and/or directors. I work in a division where my supervisor is not allowed to be a leader, but has to be a follower and has to always agree with the unit's director. He is not allowed to advocate for his team. When we all spoke up, my supervisor and my director have quickly dismissed (gaslight) how we felt. I believe that staff should be respectful to their managers and supervisors, but I started to noticed that they don't treat us equally, and that we don't have a voice.

Leadership – Concerns (14.7% of respondents)

Themes Reflected in Comments

- Desire for more effective leadership.
- Increased communication/listening to staff. have a night
- Better working relationships between leaders and staff.
- Treating staff respectfully and fairly.
- Open to feedback.
- (Comments coded here typically refer to department/agency management).

Examples

Communication from upper management is lacking, as we often find out about what's going on after the field. There needs to be a better way to keep employees informed of important initiatives.

I would encourage senior leadership in my Agency to respect the collective expertise of its staff. Not doing so is negatively affecting staff morale, especially at the least senior levels of the organization.

Accountability among leadership regarding professionalism and respectful interactions needs to be addressed.

Leadership communication from the top down is nonexistent. Our main source for information is VT Digger and WCAX. We don't feel valued for being experts in our respective fields.

Workload & Staffing – Concerns (12.7% of Respondents)

Themes Reflected in Comments

- Concerns about heavy workload
- Concerns about staffing/workload their ability to provide services,
- Concerns about understaffing
- Improving hiring practices and filling vacancies in a timely manner

Examples:

We are experiencing huge increases in workload/project assignments and have fewer staff in our team. This workload is unsustainable and is resulting in a combination of not being able to complete tasks and staff anxiety and burn out.

The site I work at is desperate for staff. Those that remain are over worked and exhausted, with no help in sight. We need mission critical communications equipment, we're told there's no money for it, yet management and casework staff got all new laptops, and the dep't is getting all new uniforms. I am actively searching for another job within the State, if the search for appropriate placement proves fruitless over the next few months I will leave State service.

The public has the concept that the State has too many employees, but in reality, there are many areas in which efficient work cannot be completed because employees are overworked and time is limited. Being able to have additional positions would make the production, accuracy, efficiency of some programs much higher. Educate the public about this.

We are woefully understaffed, and yet job responsibilities continue to get piled on with unreasonable expectations of continuing to have workloads that should be done by additional staff. The dedicated staff work hard and go "above and beyond" to get important work accomplished because they believe in the departments mission and think the work is important. However, it regularly (almost always) goes unrecognized and not appreciated, and only makes the situation worse in the long run because it perpetuated the unreasonable expectations, when leadership sees such great work being accomplished.

Supervision – Concerns (10.6% of Respondents)

Themes Reflected in Comments

- Reward and recognition of staff
- Feedback on work performed
- Performance evaluations
- Effectively dealing with work-related interpersonal situations
- Performance management/Holding employees accountable for work performance and professional behavior.
- (Comments coded here are related to one's direct supervisor).

Examples

SOV is a great place to work, but inexperienced supervision can affect morale and create unnecessary stress on employees.

Accountability needs to become a major focus for the State of Vermont

I think it is important to hold people accountable for their work and their productivity.

It is hard to work in an environment where the supervisor cannot communicate effectively, as it commonly leads to a downward spiral of effects. First they cannot communicate what they wish to be done, so we do what we think they told us to do, and then they become upset when our actions did not yield the expected goal. Then, because we did not yield the desired results, we get another explanation and it only serves to confuse us even more

I wish my supervisor had a more in-depth understanding of how to perform the duties of my position on a daily basis. There are aspects of the position that I think my supervisor could gain a better understanding and knowledge of actual daily operations.

Pay & Benefits – Concerns (9.7% of Respondents)

Themes Reflected in Comments

- Pay for Performance/Raises based on merit not longevity.
- Concerns about equity in job titles and the job classification process.
- More competitive pay/based on market.

The State really needs to bring the licensed trades people wage scale into a much more competitive comparison to the private sector, as there are fewer candidates from which to choose to fill existing positions as they are vacated by the older employees.

Pay grades could be reevaluated and merit awards could be used more frequently.

I also would like to see a change to personal leave time to consider offering that time regardless of sick time used. Parents often use more sick time due to sick kids which seems unfair to take their personal time away because they had to tend to a sick child.

Create equity across pay grades and job descriptions across divisions and agencies.

The state will need to consider what it is offering to folks that they can't get working for other companies if they want any hope of retaining employees and attracting new and young talent.

My greatest concern is the lack of equity concerning salaries with private sector jobs

More merit based and less seniority based. While understanding that those who have put in more time should benefit and that there are opportunities for merit based compensation, they are often used infrequently. It is difficult to hold people accountable which makes it challenging for those who work hard to be doing the work of those who just tow the line..

Special Section: Ranking

For the 2021 employee engagement survey a set of questions were asked to allow respondents to rank up to five characteristics that they would recommend their agency/department focus the most on improving and five characteristics they would identify as most successfully addressed in their agency/department. The characteristics that were listed were all related to employee engagement and satisfaction.

A multiple response analysis was conducted since a single respondent could choose up to five of the characteristics. The statewide results are presented here, and individual department results are presented in appendix whatever.

The “N” is the number of respondents who selected that response option. The “Percent of Cases” is the percentage of the cases (i.e., survey respondents) accounted for by this category. This column's sum will be greater than 100%, but the individual percentages can be interpreted as the prevalence of that option among the survey sample.

The top five areas for improvement and most successfully addressed have been highlighted.

Special Section: “Year Ago” Comparison

For the 2021 employee engagement survey a special section was included which asked respondents to think about how they feel now about a group of statements compared to last year before the pandemic. These questions were only asked of respondents who indicated that they were employed by the state of Vermont in March of 2020 (n = 4,126). The statements were ones that are used in the main body of the engagement survey and were on a response scale from “much worse” to “much better.” For purposes of this presentation “much worse” and “slightly worse” were combined and “slightly better” and “much better” were combined and neutral stayed the same.

Table 35      How do you feel NOW about the following statements compared to LAST YEAR (before the pandemic/March 2020).

Statements with the highest percent indicating “better” include “I feel I am productive in my job” (59.9%), “My job allows a good balance between work and my personal life” (50.0%), “Employees in my work group work well together as a team” (48.4%) and “In general, I’m satisfied with my job” (46.4%).

Statements with the lowest percent indicating “better” include “I have the opportunity to learn and grow professionally” (23.4%), “I understand the work goals and mission of my department/agency” (28.2%) and “I have an opportunity to provide feedback to management and senior leadership” (31.4%).

These results are consistent with data that has been collected on employee perceptions of remote work (See Workplace Employee Experience Survey)

To explore this further these questions were cross tabulated with the question “Considering the typical workweek right now how much time do you spend working remotely (teleworking.)? Responses could be “none,” “1 day a week,” “2-4 days a week,” or “Five days a week.”

The following tables illustrate the positive relationship between amount of time the respondent was working remotely and how that amplifies the percent indicating “better” compared to a year ago for all the statements and particularly those that would be related to what are perceived to be the positive attributes of remote work, such as a feeling of greater productivity, work life balance, general job satisfaction, and interestingly, working well together as a team.

I have the opportunity to learn and grow professionally.

My job allows a good balance between work and my personal life.

Management and senior leadership communicate important information effectively.

I have an opportunity to provide feedback to management and senior leadership.

I understand the work, goals and mission of my Department/Agency.

In general, I'm satisfied with my job.

The employees in my work group work well together as a team.

My supervisor regularly provides me with timely and useful feedback.

My supervisor regularly provides me with timely and useful feedback.

I feel I am productive in my job.
